THIS, AS YOU KNOW, IS the eighth annual progress edition of The Campbell Press.

That you are reading this column is conclusive proof that the paper has made its appearance.

But, we assure you, there were times during the past few days that we were somewhat dubious about the situation.

This column is always written long before the final drive down the stretch.

And as we write it, there are still many pieces to fit into place.

And no one was exactly sure they would fit.

But, as we said, they must have or you would not be reading this.

Of course, this is the same lament we make each year.

Still it does take considerable coordination and the efficient operation on the part of the entire staff, for this particular edition is three times the size of the normal weekly production.

And that we had.

FOR THE RECORD, THIS issue contains more advertising linage than any other single issue that has been published by The Campbell Press in its 78 years of existence.

Naturally we are proud of that record and we salute those who have made it possible, to wit, the firms that have purchased the advertising space and Sally Howe and Rusty Hammer of The Press advertising staff.

It was a remarkable achievement.

And Pat Safford and JoAnn Zoller made their typewriters really zing as they turned out special features for the edition.

And without Ruthie Duske and Erlene Cleveland on the IBM or Brent Ulrich and Shirley Hess on the production end, it would not have been possible to meet the horrible deadlines.

We are also much appreciative of the special contributors, especially those at the city hall, Bob Stephens, Jeff Whittaker, Wally Byron, Art Kee, and Bill Wren and the police and fire departments.

And Jeanette Watson's story is great.

All in all it was a team effort all the way through.

Yea, team!!

"A COMMUNITY IN BALANCE" is the theme for this eighth annual progress edition of The Campbell Press.

The "scale" that is used throughout the paper to illustrate the balance theme was drawn by Roy Doerr, a commercial artist, who is also pretty much a part of The Press "family."

Admittedly the theme allows considerable latitude and, of course, there will be those who will argue that the community is out of balance.

But differences of opinion make the world go around.

Or something.

BILL PODGORSEK, Campbell's mayor. has accepted the challenge of Gary Gillmor, mayor of Santa Clara, and has entered the 20-mile walkathon for the March of Dimes on Sunday, March 10.

Now Bill is looking for sponsors.

The sponsor contributes so much per mile that Bill walks on the course which begins and ends at Buck Shaw Stadium at Santa Clara. All the money is contributed to the March of Dimes.

Bill admits that he really is not much of a walker because he has had foot problems.

But bad feet or not, he felt that he had to uphold the honor of the city and accept the challenge of Mayor Gillmor.

Although Pod hasn't trained on any active walking course, he claims that he has more or less kept in training

Campbell Community Hospital keeps accreditation during appeal period

Campbell Community Hospital will retain its accreditation, originally granted in 1963 and renewed periodically for two-year periods (the last one in 1972), while an appeal is pending before the Joint Commission of Accreditation of Hospitals, according to Clifton Linville, administrator of the local hospital.

No time has been set for action on the appeal.

Linville said that the hospital is questioning the validity of the action taken in November which recommended that the accreditation be lifted. The accreditation commission, based in Chicago, is a voluntary body comprised of representatives from the various professional associations involved in medical care.

Since last summer the local hospital, a privately owned institution owned by Pacific Community Hospital, has been plagued by internal friction, stemming from a change of management that resulted when different stockholders assumed control.

The turmoil reached a peak last summer when the medical staff, that had been replaced by the new management, were re-instated by a court ruling.

Complicating the situation also was that most of the nurses left their positions during the controversy and were replaced by new personnel.

The so-called "old medical staff" continued their duties at the local hospital, under Dr. Richard C. Rhodes, chief-of-staff, until December. At the time of the annual election, the staff decided not to name new officers, according to Dr. Rhodes, and thus "stepped out" of the picture.

Subsequently, the court, at their request, dismissed the injunction suit that had reinstated the staff, leaving the way clear for new by-laws and a new staff organization.

Under the reorganization, Dr. A. J. Malerstein was elected president or chief-of-staff.

Linville, the current administrator, came here from the Fresno Community Hospital. He said that he was optimistic over the improvements that have been made in the hospital in recent months and indicated that the occupancy rate of the 48-bed institution has increased.

New equipment has been purchased, he added, and considerable refurbishing work has been completed.

The "deficiencies" found by the accreditation team mainly concerned the organization and operation of the medical staff, it was reported.

EAST CAMPBELL AVENUE

Survey shows PruneYard attracts heavy traffic

There is more locally-oriented traffic on East Campbell Avenue than long-distant commuting and The Towers-PruneYard is the attraction for more of the motorists than any other single area.

That is what Russell Pearson, traffic consultant, revealed to the City Council Monday night in a preliminary report based on a three-day traffic survey his firm conducted (Jan. 30-Feb. 1) on a joint city-county contract.

Pearson explained that the results were based on 1,081 interviews with motorists traveling the street during certain specific periods during the three days.

Pearson said that his final report, which will include recommendations for solutions to the problems that exist on traffic-plagued East Campbell Avenue will be submitted at a later date.

The traffic consultant was employed after the City Council had deferred placing a blockade at Midway Avenue to divert traffic off the street. Residents of the other streets, as well as county officials, had objected to such an installation. The county and city shared equally in the cost

Trustees meet with Chicanos

Because of the charges made last Thursday by representatives of the Chicano community that poor communications exist between the school board and them, a special Campbell Union (elementary) School District trustee meeting took place Tuesday (after press time) at the Campbell Elementary School.

Heading the list of complaints was the lettuce boycott issue. The Mexican-American group has long advocated that the school district should ban iceberg lettuce as a sympathy gesture toward the United Farm Workers.

Twice previously the board has, by split votes, refused to go along with the ban. The special meeting was scheduled when the Chicano representatives claimed that not enough time was allowed at regular board meetings for them to present their complaints.

In another action last

Freeway signs get city okay

By a 3-2 vote, the City Council on Monday night approved an amendment that would allow freeway-oriented signs under certain conditions. Then by the same vote gave first reading to the ordinance. The ordinance will be up for final adoption at the next meeting March 12.

The action by the City Council overruled the recommendation of the Planning Commission which would prohibit all such signs but was similar to the proposal that had been suggested by a joint study committee of Chamber of Commerce and city officials.

The amendment submitted by Councilman Rusty Hammer, specifies that all proposed

CITY COUNCIL DILEMMA

"Peace on Earth" but how long on "Towers"?

"Peace on earth" is a message with universal appeal, especially at this time in history, Campbell city councilmen agree.

But the message has its place.

And, according to city regulations, that place is not on top of an 18-story building to be viewed from the freeway, except on a temporary basis, that is.

But how long is "temporary?"

After four fruitless tries at motions setting the time the famed, but "illegal," "Peace on earth" sign atop The Towers would have to come down, the City Council gave up on Monday night and unanimously passed a motion by Councilman Norm Paul to defer action until the next meeting on March 12.

The sign, which does not meet city specifications, went up before Christmas with a temporary permit. The time of the permit has now expired.

Joe Dabaghian, manager of The Towers and PruneYard, appeared at the meeting and asked the Council to allow the sign to remain for a short period longer until the POW situation had normalized.

So the Council proceeded to get hung-up as to what was a "short period."

A motion for a 10-day extension lost 3 to 2. A two-week time limit suffered the same fate.

A motion until April 1 received no second.

Mayor Bill Podgorsek then suggested a May 1 deadline when the Easter season would be over. Councilman Ralph Doetsch made that motion. The mayor was forced to give up the gavel to second it.

But that also went down the drain by a 3-2 count.

The councilmen all admitted it was sort of ridiculous and frustrating.

So they deferred action on Paul's motion until the next meeting. This time the vote was 5-0.

The next meeting is two weeks away.

Balanced community

The Campbell Press today presents its eighth annual progress edition and proudly calls attention to the fact that it contains more advertising linage than any other single edition of The Press in its 78-year history.

"Progress," as we all know, has a different meaning to some than to others.

As we have so long maintained, growth alone is not necessarily progress.

"Progress" has been defined as a movement toward a goal or to farther or higher stage and an advancement in general.

So during the preceding seven "progress editions" and in today's edition, the eighth, The Press has not placed any special emphasis on the tremendous growth that has taken place nor has it maintained that this community is one of the fastest-growing cities in the country.

Population figures, in our estimation, are merely measuring sticks to be used for comparative purposes with other places of similar size.

In this year's progress edition the theme is a balanced community.

Balanced, according to the dictionary, means being in harmonious or proper arrangement or adjustment, proportion, etc.

The question, of course, in all our minds is whether this city in its 21 years of existence has developed out of proportion in any one phase or is there now a "harmonious or proper arrangement."

We are well aware that people have different ideas on what a balanced community should be.

What we have tried to do in this issue is to focus on the community as a whole and to determine, if we can, whether the proper balance is being maintained.

But to analyze the situation properly, one must be fair and objective. That is a difficult task.

For example, there are many who feel that the city is lacking in parks and recreational facilities.

And that may be true to a certain extent.

But let us not forget that it is an expensive undertaking to build and maintain parks. From funds from the park bond issue of 1969, the neighborhood parks and the first phase of Rincon Park are now being developed. Thus the city is making progress in the parks and recreational area, in a conservative manner to be sure, but also without working a fiscal hardship in other areas of concern.

We feel that is a pretty good balance.

The City of Campbell will mark its 21st birthday next month and we think it well to remember that during these past two decades a complete transformation has taken place in this community.

This was strictly an agricultural-oriented community when the City of Campbell was incorporated in 1952 but today little evidence remains of the little cannery town that was in existence since before the turn of the century.

We think it speaks well of the city authorities who, during the past 21 years, have guided the development of the community.

We recognize that, in many cases, the guidelines were sort of indefinite and the proper development came about without the help of city officials.

We believe, however, that, on the whole, Campbell has turned into a well-balanced community. How it arrived at this point is relatively unimportant.

We mean that through proper zoning and control of building there has been an orderly advancement toward a definite goal and that the city which exists today pretty well meets the criteria contained in the definition as listed in the dictionary:

--- "being in harmonious or proper arrangement or adjustment, proportion, etc."

by his golf playing.

Bill maintains that on any given golf course, he always walks twice as far as most players do in following his ball from one side of the fairway to the other.

On the credit side also is the point that Podgorsek's first sponsor was his partner in Spartan Printing, Fran Ahlman.

Fran has agreed to put up one buck for every mile Bill walks during the walkathon.

That should tell us something. Or does it?

Anyway if you have confidence in Bill's walking ability, or whether you don't, no matter, the money still goes to a good cause.

So why not be his sponsor?

He could surprise us all and go the whole route.

Of course, he may not be able to walk for two weeks afterwards.

IN STARK CONTRAST to the theme of this issue, our personal meeting schedule was completely out-of-balance last Thursday.

It is not unusual to have a conflict between two meetings on the same night but last Thursday there were three that we should have attended at the same time.

By one of those peculiar quirks, all three meetings were within three blocks of each other.

We made 'em all. But one might say it was sort of a token attendance.

We stayed for about 45-minutes at the Campbell school board meeting. We then scooted a couple of blocks and sat in on the annual meeting of the West Valley College advisory committee for a brief spell and then scurried over to the city hall where the Citizens Advisory Goals Committee was winding up.

And, incidentally, prior to the school board session we attended another meeting called for 5 p.m.

We think it can be said without fear of contradiction that our coverage of the three meetings was not "in depth."

It was sort of a touch-and-go bit.

SPEAKING OF MEETings, it was decided by the school board to have a special meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 27, for the purpose of establishing better communication with the so-called Chicano community.

Chicano representatives at the school board meeting last Thursday complained that time was too short at regular board meetings for them to present their grievances.

So the trustees called the meeting for Tuesday where the dialogue, hopefully, will result in a better understanding.

Because the meeting was called on such short notice, The Press could neither announce it nor cover it.

THOSE SUNSHINY DAYS after the deluge were a delightful and welcome respite.

We understand there were some people who were wondering whether the sun had given up entirely.

But those days did give us all a chance to dry out and, of course, it made it possible for us to venture into the backyard again.

Our yard looked so shaggy and there is so much work to be done that we sort of wished for the rain to come again.

Incidentally, as we are writing this, the sun has once more disappeared and it is possible that there will have been more showers by the time you are reading.

Speaking of rain, the Campbell Water Co., has kept a yearly record for Campbell since 1874, a span of 99 years.

According to their records, this season has been the wettest to date (end of January) in 84 years.

The season runs from July 1 to June 30 and only one time in 99 years (1889-90) did the rainfall to date exceed this year's total. At the end of January in 1889, the total was 23.28 inches and total for the entire season was 30.30 inches.

A hasty glance over the records showed that there have been a number of years when the total rainfall exceeded 20-inches, for example, the rainfall was 28 inches in 1940-41 and 24.8 in 1968-69.

And there have been some dry years, too. The lowest we noticed was in 1912-13 with 6.35 inches recorded and, of course, last year (1971-72) was not so red hot either, when only 8.09 inches were recorded.

We noticed also that, although the total for the 1955-56 season was 21.25 inches, for a period of seven days in December, more than 10 inches of rain fell, with 4½-inches in one 24-hour period.

Now, that's what we call out-of-balance.

MORE ABOUT Survey shows

for the survey.

Pearson said that after The Towers-PruneYard area, the easterly end of East Campbell Avenue and central Campbell were next in line as to destination of the motorist.

In a breakdown as to the reason for traveling, 53.5% indicated work; 15.7% shopping; 11.9% social; 5.6% school and 3.5% other. Of all the vehicles stopped, 96% were passenger cars; 1.9% were trucks; .2% buses; .6% motorcycles.

The survey, according to Pearson, indicated that people want to travel on a "straight line" and, although there were a number of long trips recorded, the majority were mostly short ones.

The traffic consultant also reported that the study indicated also that any diversion or closure on East Campbell Avenue would add substantially to the traffic on adjacent streets.

He said that despite the heavy traffic on the street, its accident history has not been unusual and is even below many streets of similar volume.

Pearson added that, in his opinion, the survey was reasonably successful.

He said that the count for "central Campbell" might have been increased had the Campbell campus of West Valley College been in session. He said that mid-term registration for all West Valley College students at the time of the survey was being held on the Saratoga campus.

CITY'S BIRTHDAY PARTY—Students of St. Lucy's School were quick to respond to the request for birthday greetings from first to sixth graders to celebrate the City of Campbell's 21st anniversary on March 28. Left to right, Joyce Hamann, Maureen Manstield, Diane Neil and Jill Calton pictured with Mrs. Irma Reese, director of the West Valley Progressive Seniors who will also be aiding in the city's birthday party.

The youngsters whose designs are judged the most creative and imaginative will be invited to the birthday luncheon at the fire station adjacent to the city hall on March 28 where they will blow out the candles on the city's official birthday cake. Entries must be submitted by March 16 by 5 p.m.

The cake will be furnished by the food and restaurant management division of West Valley College.

The Chamber of Commerce, city employees, local churches and service groups will participate in the birthday event. Mrs. Jeanette Watson is general chairman of the city's coming-of-age-party.

TO HELP YOU FEEL ACQUAINTED
- We believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.
- That righteousness is simply "rightness".
- That there is no one that is righteous.
- That through faith in Christ's death for us, God forgives our past sins.
- That through this forgiveness we can have fellowship with God, person to Person.

PAUL & MS. MAUREEN

Ms.: I've got to talk to you. It's very important.

Paul: What could be so important?

Ms.: Sybil's birthday.

Paul: That's not important.

OPEN MOUTH ELECTION COVERAGE

On Friday, February 16, the student body once again went to the polls to elect their class officers.

Elected were: Seniors--Mike Keeney, president; Pam Falke, vice-president; Denise Farrington, secretary, and EveAnn Reinhardt, treasurer.

Representing the juniors are Kip Carpenter, president; Joyce Apollo, vice-president; Robin Rosendale, secretary; Joe Connolly, treasurer.

Voices for the class of '75 are Tim Bowers as president; Richard Atkinson will be the veep; secretary is Laura Grisham; and treasurer, Miley Falk.

Frosh officers are Darrell Plusch, president; John Franze, vice-president; Kathy Dees, secretary; Tammy Larraux, treasurer.

Let's hope these 16 do their jobs well and we'll really have an active student government to end the year.

Ms.: But it is. She's all depressed because she isn't going to have a birthday this year.

Paul: Why? Did she forget it?

Ms.: No! She was born on February 29. That only comes once every four years.

Ms.: Brilliant Maureen, brilliant.

JOCKETTES

On February 21, Westmont's wiry wonder women started off the 1973 gymnastics season by winning their first tri-meet.

Branham and Los Gatos couldn't compare to our fantastic gymnasts. The final score was 123, with Branham and Los Gatos struggling along behind with 118 and 9, respectively.

Firsts were taken by Rosie Heinen and Carie Dowdy in tumbling and Sherrie Dibasilio in vaulting.

Ms.: What could we do? Maybe we could give her a fake birthday.

Paul: Fits her personality.

Ms.: Be kind...she's only 4.

JEREMIAH JOHNSON (movie time)

Film fanatics all, the Peninsula Adult/Youth Film Council has given us the opportunity to see and report to you on a current film of the local theaters.

The film for this month is JEREMIAH JOHNSON, starring Robert Redford and featuring Will Greer as Bear Claw, the weathered old mountain man.

It's the story of a man who has become discontent with the ways of society. To escape, he retreats to the Rocky Mountains and takes up the life of a mountain man--a rugged breed of the mid-1800's.

The movie is spectacular, and perhaps the best offered this year by PA/YFC. Filmed on location in Zion and other national parks of Utah, the glory of the Rocky Mountains shines through in the spectacular photography.

There is very little dialogue in this breathtaking movie, nor is much needed. Robert Redford and the Rocky Mountains take you away for two hours on a carpet ride of bliss that will make you forget--for a while--the smog and ennuis outside.

Paul: Next year she'll be five and she can start school. She could use it.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Congratulations to Rachel Garcia, Class of '73, and Tim Rhodes, Class of '72, on their engagement, and plans for an August wedding.

KATHY NAVARRA, we'd like to welcome you to the Open Mouth Hate Society, where each week you will be given the opportunity to ridicule and condemn our column. Why not? We realize our proteges have nothing better to do in their space. (post script: are you the Kathy who was a counselor recently at Bean Creek?)

Congratulations to Jeff and Katy Piper--both of whom have walked the halls of Westmont--on the birth of their son, Jeffrey.

Ms.: The least you could do is buy her a card.

Paul: Yes, I suppose I could.

Ms.: That's awfully nice of you.

Paul: Maureen, do you have a quarter I could borrow?

WHAT DO I DO WITH THIS?

by Paul

I've never skied before, and after last weekend I still think I never did. All I remember is lots of snow.

Westmont's Spanish Club had raised enough money over the past two years to allow their members a "fun-filled," "action packed" weekend at Dodge Ridge.

Thanks to a lot of luck and our club "parents" the Zielski's, we managed to really enjoy a club activity ... and I guess I learned how to ski.

The Spanish club would like to thank Nancy, and Mr. and Mrs. Zielski for chaperoning and the use of their cabin.

Paul: Well, I haven't even seen her since I sent her away. Why should I send her a card?

Ms.: The reason you haven't even seen her is because she's been in an Italian villa living with her rich millionaire boyfriend.

Paul: Then why should I send her a card? She should send us money!

Ms.: She's only doing it to mend her broken heart.

!FLASH!

Help us! The Pops Concert decoration committee needs 78 records to make table centerpieces out of them.

So, if you have any old Dinah Shore records you'd like to get rid of, since she nailed Burt Reynolds before you could, contact Mrs. Faulconer at 378-8904, or drop them by the band room for Czar Kenyon.

Paul: Who's she broken hearted over? Mike Lindsey?

Ms.: No! It's you! --- Paul! Get your head out of the oven!

REGRETFULLY YOURS,

Most everybody is born with at least five senses, and then as they grow older they develop the other three. But there is one more sense that people tend to ignore in this day and age.

Too many people "know it all" these days, and even when proven wrong, hesitate or don't at all say "I'm sorry." Perhaps it is the fault of that horrendous novel stating love means never.....

At any rate, there is nothing wrong with being in error and saying so. Lynne Hermle pointed this out, in a very distinct manner, saying that Robbie and I were wrong in our February 14 issue. It was poor journalism, and totally uncalled for in a high school column.

It was even a cruel act, and for the past few weeks we haven't any nails left for regret of it.

We hereby publicly render a most humble apology to the Campbell varsity basketballers, and the Campbell students. Our thanks to Lynne Hermle for pointing out our painful mistake.

Ms.: Don't feel bad for her. Her motto is "it is better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all."

Paul: Who feels bad?

EGO CORNER

On this day, February 28, in the year of our Lord 1973, we formally decorate our most informal friend, Marshall Otter.

Marshall is page two editor for the Westmont Shield, and a varsity swimmer. He's also spent all four years of his high school career playing a "hot" trombone in the marching and concert bands. Marsh is also an avid Open Mouth fan.

Marshall, you're really something else, and you'll be glad to know you beat out Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers for this space.

Ms.: In fact, she loves you so much she's leaving her millionaire boyfriend to come back to you. Hey, where you going?

Paul: To see if I can get her deported before she even lands.

Ms.: That's mean.

Paul: I know.

by Mike Lindsey

Well, another week, another column. It's been pretty quiet here at Camden so I have decided to dedicate my entire column to...

WESTMOUTHS OPEN MONT

You may be thinking, right now, that I'm going to "zap" them. Quite contrary, I'm going to defend them, for I feel anything as bad as their column is going to need all the defending it can get.

First, let's talk about the pictures of Paul and Ms. Maureen. Now if you'll look at them and see how they spared us the misfortune of having to look at them...well, all I can say is, that was darn nice of them.

Now let's get down to the business end of their column. I have to admit it's always long. They always try to cover many subjects. By giving us this variety, you generally find one story that isn't too bad. Again I think this shows a great deal of consideration.

After being nice to them in the first half of this story, I feel it's my duty to point out the bad parts.

One: The ego corner. Although it is always the shortest part of an otherwise long-winded column, probably because of the size of their ego, we find it almost unbearable.

Two: A couple of issues ago Ms. Maureen stumbled upon the sight of Paul with his head in an oven. She immediately convinced him to pull his head from the oven. I suppose she considered it a great waste of ELECTRICITY. Possibly, he should try a nice high bridge. I hear they are very effective, and economical for Maureen.

In closing, I'd just like to give Paul and Ms. Maureen a little encouragement, for no matter how bad your column is now, it's bound to improve. It sure couldn't get any worse.

Forest Hill School hosts town-hall meeting, March 2

Forest Hill School will host a town hall meeting with Assemblyman John Vasconcellos (D-24th District), on Friday, March 2, beginning at 7:30 p.m. The school is located at 4450 McCoy Ave. (off San Tomas Aquino Rd.)

According to Al Watson, district information officer, Forest Hill School is in this way initiating a goal setting program using the guidelines suggested by the Joint Legislative Committee on Educational Goals and Evaluations.

Vasconcellos is chairman of this committee, and has been using this town hall meeting approach as a means of communicating with his constituents in the 24th District.

Following this initial goal setting meeting with John Vasconcellos, the Forest Hill Goals Advisory Committee has set two succeeding meeting dates for March. According to Watson, the intent of these two additional meetings is to get as many of the citizens in that school community involved in the actual process of determining a priority of educational goals for the students of Forest Hill School.

The second meeting will take place March 8. At that time Louis Albanese, school principal, hopes to fill the school cafetorium and adjoining rooms with interested parents. Groups of four will be formed and verbal dialogue will be developed in an attempt to rank the desired educational goals for the students.

At the third meeting, citizens will be urged to take a close look at the goals established. Purpose of this final meeting is to see how well the school is meeting the determined goals, and to make suggestions for improvements.

Child care service will be provided for these three meetings. The regularly scheduled PTA meeting, March 13, has been cancelled to allow citizen participation in the goal setting program.

Freeway

freeway-oriented signs must be considered by the City Council upon recommendation from the Planning Commission. It was seconded by Vice-Mayor Dean Chamberlin and Councilman Ralph Doetsch joined them in favoring it.

Opposing were Councilman Norm Paul and Mayor Bill Podgorsek. Paul maintained that some such signs should be allowed but he felt that it was first necessary to establish guidelines. He added also that such signs should be for identification purposes for major retail establishments or service centers not served by immediate off-ramps. Chamberlin and Paul clashed briefly over the issue.

Chamberlin maintained that searching for guidelines would further delay the long-pending issue and he was against that. Paul added that he did not mean to postpone it and that he was willing to work out the guidelines at the meeting.

Involved in the long-struggle to find a suitable sign ordiance are two appeals from Planning Commission denials of signs, one for the Prune-Yard and the other for Gold Key. Both appeals have been held in abeyance since last fall while a new ordinance was hammered out. The denials of the Planning Commission were based on the former City Council policy prohibiting freeway signs. The new ordinance eliminates that policy.

The City Council, because of the new ordinance, referred both appeals back to the Planning Commission for recommendation.

Councilman Hammer opposed the referral, maintaining that the Commission had already acted on them.

OTHER ACTIONS

In other actions at the meeting, the Council approved the agreement between the Campbell-Moreland Pony League and the city for the use of the Pony League ball field and other city-owned facilities at Rincon Park. The annual agreement gives the league priority but non-exclusive use subject to specific conditions. The league retains the concession rights.

By a 4-0 vote (Councilman Doetsch abstaining), final reading was given the zone change application of Joyce Kealoha that will allow a dog kennel operation at 1849 Pollard Road subject to sound level standards.

City Manager Bob Stephens was directed by the Council to explain, in answer to a letter from Mrs. Edith Bonnet, 798 Loyalton, that the city-school district park agreement specifies that the school district was responsible for maintenance and supervision.

Mrs. Bonnet had suggested that the neighborhood park at Forest Hill School needed after-hour supervision.

The Council deferred for two weeks the request for live entertainment by Sebastian's on the top floors of The Towers. Fire Chief Gene Borden had indicated that certain deficiencies needed to be corrected.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS

The International Order of Job's Daughters Bethel 174 held an initiation ceremony on February 10 at the Grange Hall.

Welcomed into the Bethel at this time were Cheryl Fox and Betsy Verbrugge.

This was also the official visit of the Deputy Grand Guardian, Mrs. Onnolee Larson. Mrs. Larson was presented with a gift and the Honored Queen's Carrying Piece, a Christmas lantern.

Auto moved --- the hard way

Sherlynne Greco was awakened early Thursday morning by sounds of a loud crash. Looking out her window, she saw her car sitting some 60 feet up the street. It had been parked in front of her house the night before.

Arrested a short time later was Ronald Lucero, 22, of 775 E. Hamilton Ave. With Lucero at the time of his arrest was William O'Keefe, 25, a passenger in the car at the time of the crash. O'Keefe was taken to Campbell Community Hospital for treatment of facial lacerations sustained in the collison.

COMMISSION MEETS NEXT MONDAY

Sunsweet conversion plans get okay at last meeting

In contrast to the last meeting, when approval was given the ambitious plans that would transform a long-established landmark of the old fruit-growing days in the downtown core of Campbell into a novel center, a light agenda faces the Planning Commission at the meeting next Monday, March 5.

Only one new application for building plans will be on the agenda.

At the meeting of the Planning Commission on Feb. 20, plans were approved to convert the old Sunsweet plant in "downtown Campbell" into a commercial, dining and entertainment center to be called "The Factory" were approved. Richard Millen is the applicant.

Involved in the approval of the plans was the parking area which calls for 291 spaces on the site plan, showing parking on the future location of the loop street.

The plan also calls for 53,000 square feet of leasable floor area. It was indicated that the general shape of the present buildings will remain with the same building materials, although sand blasting is under way now to bring out the natural finish of both wood and brick structures.

At next Monday's meeting, the only new application for building plans is that of I. D. Wiens, who is seeking approval of an office, manufacturing and warehouse building at 529 Forman Ave. in an M-1-S zone.

Other items on the agenda, continued from previous meetings, include the application of Errico and Byrnes for a 12-unit apartment complex at 240 Union Ave. and that of Gold Seal Realty for the conversion of a residence into an office at 492 Nottingham Way.

Continued also from the previous meeting is the application of Carpeteria for a free-standing pole sign at 423 E. Hamilton and that of Jerry F. Saia for a zone change from R-M to C-1-S at 1315 Pollard Road to allow the construction of a convenience market.

At the February 20 meeting, the Planning Commission approved the modified plans submitted by Bill Jones and Orlie Paxton for a scuba-diving operation at 2110 Winchester Blvd.

Approved also was the application of Bill Dean to construct an office-warehouse at 503 Salmar and subject to City Council action on the conditions levied, plans for an auto center at 3369 Winchester Blvd. were approved.

The Council will have to give the okay for landscaping, sidewalk and setback variances that were part of the Planning Commission approval.

The Planning Commission on February 20 also approved the long-pending application of Verne L. Buckle for a plumbing shop and offices at 240-250 Dillon Ave.

Approval was also given the tentative subdivision map submitted by W. G. Gibson on property on the west side of San Tomas Expressway between Gale and Latimer.

However, the commissioners ruled that those lots fronting on Latimer be limited to 7,000 square feet on which duplexes only could be built.

The application of Carl W. McGee for the conversion of two residential buildings into offices, which has been before the Planning Commission for a lengthy period, was continued until April 2 when the commissioners indicated firmly the matter would have to be resolved then.

The application of Frank Spadafore to change the zoning of property at 1520 Dell Ave., from CM: B-80 to CM:-B-40 is on the agenda for next Monday and the Commission has also scheduled April 2 as the hearing date for the prezoning of property to be annexed to the city at 2180 and 2190 S. Bascom.

PRAYER DAY

Church Women United of West Santa Clara Valley will celebrate World Day of Prayer March 2, at the Union Church of Cupertino at 1 p.m. The topic will be "Alert In Our Time." Child care will be provided.

Alaskan show ends Sunday

Over 40 exhibits of Alaskan travel, sports and recreational facilities are on display at the 10-day trade fair, which ends this Sunday, March 4, at Mayfield Mall in Mountain View.

Traditional Alaskan entertainment, including Eskimo, Chilkat Indian, and Russian dances, are part of the fair, which also includes daily prizes.

During the show an 11-foot Chilkat Indian totem pole is being carved and will be sold to the highest bidder on closing day.

Sponsored by the State of Alaska Division of Tourism and the Alaska Visitor's Association, admission to the show is free.

Trustees

Thursday that could have a far-reaching effect on the district, the trustees approved the recommendation of Ruth Launer, director of instruction, and applied to the State Board of Education for funding for the Early Childhood Education Program for 1973-74.

The program has been established under Senate Bill 1302 and its intent, through the funding, is to give all children, by the end of the third grade, sufficient command of the basic skills in reading, language and math so that they can succeed in their future schooling and life.

REBEKAHS MEET

Ada Rebekah Lodge will meet Tuesday, March 6, in the I.O.O.F. Hall, Campbell at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Eunice Ellett, District Deputy President, will be received on her official visit accompanied by her Marshal, Mrs. Naomi Blais.

Lodge members will celebrate with a St. Patrick theme, Mrs. Mary Cavin acting as committee chairman for the evening.

Rolling Hills concert slated

Rolling Hills second annual Pops Concert, will feature several small ensemble groups in addition to the school's choir, band and orchestra.

Performances will be held on Thursday, March 1, and Friday, March 2, in the More Avenue school auditorium

Tom Fox is directing the band and orchestra, while Ken Taylor leads the school choir.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. Wayne Massingill.

REAPPOINTED---Dr. Warren W. Sorenson, assistant superintendent for education at West Valley College, has been reappointed to a statewide project to help California community colleges cope with their responsibility to prepare students for employment. The project is called COPES (Community College Occupational Evaluation System).

Dr. Sorenson is among more than 50 community college administrators and faculty members, along with persons from industry and business, nominated. By the end of the current fiscal year, approximately 35 students will have taken advantage of the COPES service.

LEGION AUXILIARY

American Legion Auxiliary 158 will hold a card party on Monday, March 5, at 1 p.m. in the post hall, Campbell and Dell avenues.

Prizes and refreshments are planned.

Spring is on the way and it's time to roll up sleeves and get that spring cleaning started...

WHILE you have those sleeves rolled up...

The CAMPBELL MOOSE LODGE is having their annual Blood Drive Friday, March 2, 5-8 p.m. at the Lodge Hall, 785 McGlincy Lane. The public is invited to participate and for everyone giving blood there will be a free spaghetti dinner afterwards. For people not wishing to give, the meal will be $2.50.

Another bonus is that persons giving blood and members of their immediate family will be eligible to receive blood free, for one year, and that of course, is the best bonus of all...

Mayor BILL PODGORSEK and wife ARLENE were among guests attending the 21st Anniversary Dinner Dance of the Knights of Columbus, Bishop O'Dowd Council, Saturday night at St. Lucy's Church Hall. Arlene said all Past Grand Knights were honored at the gala affair and especially honored was JIM KOCHER who was presented a Medal of Recognition by PETE PIERRON, current Grand Knight for the group...

CLYDE and AGNES BRING of Sunberry Drive were awakened by a phone call at 5 a.m. last Thursday morning but Agnes said they didn't mind a bit. The call was from their good friends, CLARENCE and EDNA WOLF of Vermillion, Ohio, who had just arrived in San Jose. The Brings hadn't seen their friends, the Wolfs, in nine years...

"Marriage Encounter" talks will begin Sunday, March 4, in the Parish Center of St. Thomas of Canterbury Church, 1522 McCoy Ave., San Jose. REV. PAUL PERLITE, pastor of St. Thomas Church, says, "They will be something to make good marriages even better." The talk will begin at 7:30 p.m. ...

OBITUARY

Hallelujah services were held at 35 Dillon Ave., Monday, for FANG, resident rodent poacher of the CAMPBELL PRESS.

Fang, who was active in pilfering our coveted supply of cookies so generously donated by our favorite benefactor Mrs. BETTY RITTER, met his demise suddenly behind the Heidelberg press.

Interment was, of necessity, through Santa Clara Sanitation District No. 4.

Frances Kersh gives art talk

The Country Woman's Club of Campbell will have a special program by one of their own members, Frances Kersh, former Campbell resident and art teacher, at their meeting on Monday, March 5 at the Congregational Church of Campbell, 400 W. Campbell Ave., at 1 p.m.

Mrs. Kersh former art teacher at the West Valley Senior Action Center, will demonstrate, with the use of slides, some of the "mysteries" of abstract art.

Program chairman is Mrs. A. Sumner Antcliff assisted by Mmes. E. C. Price, J. P. Bowker, A. V. Dye, Raymond Englund and Mary Tellefson.

CROSS DEDICATION HELD SUNDAY

Dedication ceremonies will be held at Campbell Congregational Church this Sunday, March 4, when a replacement cross is installed in honor of the late Reverend Joe Bennett.

The original church cross was stolen sometime during the Thanksgiving holidays last year.

The Reverend Anthony Wayne Myers will conduct ceremonies honoring Rev. Bennett who served as pastor of the church from 1927 to 1945. In addition to his leadership in the church community, Rev. Bennett was also one of the founders of the national Boy Scout program.

Services begin at 11 a.m. at the church, located at 400 W. Campbell Ave.

Award winning books arrive at library

The Children's Services Division of the American Library Association announced this week the winners of the 1973 Newbery and Caldecott Medals. These awards are the most prestigious honors for children's books in the United States. The award winning books are all either available now at the Campbell Library, or will be available very soon. Call 378-8122 for information.

The Newbery Medal, awarded annually to the author of the most distinguished contribution to American literature for children, goes this year to Jean George for Julie of the Wolves (Harper & Row, $4.95). This remarkable novel for upper elementary school children tells of an Eskimo girl who runs away from home and is sheltered by a pack of wolves.

Runners-up for the Newbery Medal include Frog and Toad Together by A. Lobel (Harper, $2.95), The Upstairs Room by J. Reiss (Crowell, $4.50), and The Witches of Worm by Z. K. Snyder (Atheneum, $5.25).

The 1973 Caldecott Medal, honoring the artist of the most distinguished American picture book for children will be awarded to Blair Lent for his interpretation of The Funny Little Woman by A. Mosel (Dutton, $5.95). The drawings for this Japanese fantasy are detailed and expressive with a particularly effective portrayal of ugly underground monsters. Other illustrators who were runners-up for the Caldecott Medal are: L. Baskin for Hosie's Alphabet (Viking, $4.95), T. Bahti for When Clay Sings, (Scribner, $4.95), N. Burkert for Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs (Farrar, $4.95), and G. McDermott for Anansi the Spider (Holt, $5.27).

Orchid show entries sought

Campbell orchid growers and hobbiests are invited to enter the Santa Clara Valley Orchid Society's annual orchid show, scheduled for Thursday and Friday, March 15 and 16, in the lobby of the Wells Fargo Bank, Market and San Fernando Streets in San Jose.

"Orchid Fantasy," is the theme of this year's show and judging will be done by the national American Orchid Society and bank officials.

Anyone is welcome to enter the show, according to Annabella Downs, society publicity director. Entries must be brought to the bank building on Wednesday, March 14, between 4 and 6 p.m., according to Mrs. Downs.

YWCA offers brochures

YWCA spring program to be carried on in Sunnyvale and various parts of San Jose is being finalized this week, and now is the time for individuals not on the YW's mailing list to request brochures.

Clubs, classes and interest groups are active at the Cambrian YW Center, 4343 Leigh Ave., San Jose, and different sections of East and South San Jose. The YWCA is a United Fund Agency open to all women and girls; some activities are open to men and boys as associates.

During daytime activities for women, a nursery is often available.

Requests for spring brochures should go to the Metropolitan YW or to the YW Center nearby.

Musicke Faire concert set

Bartok's Sonata for Two Pianos and Percussion, 1937, highlights Musicke Faire's third concert, Monday, March 5, at 8:30 p.m. in the concert hall of San Jose State University.

The free performances of the series are open to the public and are made possible by the combined support of the Performance Trust Fund, Courtesy of Local 153, American Federation of Musicians; a cultural grant from the City of San Jose, department of music, San Jose State University; Old Town of Los Gatos, and Immanuel Lutheran Church in San Jose.

Musicke Faire Chamber Group concerts are now in their third season.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, in the office of the Clerk, County Administration Building, Room 524, 70 West Hedding Street, San Jose, California 95110, up to 2:00 p.m. March 8, 1973 for TRANSIT DISTRICT SERVICE YARD LIGHTING, SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA in the County of Santa Clara, State of California, in accordance with plans and specifications on file for the work in the Office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

The bids will be opened by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors at the time and place above stated, and a report of the names of all bidders and the amount of each bid will be made by the Clerk to the Board of Supervisors at the next regular or special meeting of the Board following the date of opening of the bids.

Workmen employed in the work must be paid at the rates at least equal to the prevailing wage rates last adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, which rates are filed in the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, incorporated herein by reference, and copies of which are available to any interested parties on request.

The County of Santa Clara is an equal opportunity employer and all contractors on County projects are required to follow a policy of affirmative action in regard to the requirements of Executive Order 11246, as well as the regulations of the Fair Employment Practice Commission of the State of California.

A payment bond is required to be filed and approved by the Board of Supervisors before entering upon the performance of the work.

Each bid must be accompanied by cash, a certified or cashier's check or a bidder's bond in the sum of not less than 10% of the total aggregate of the bid, and the checks or bond shall be made payable to the order of the County of Santa Clara.

All bids must be addressed to the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, and shall bear the title or name of the work to be constructed.

The Board of Supervisors reserves the right to reject any and all bids or to waive any errors or discrepancies.

Time limit for the completion of the work is 120 calendar days. Liquidated damages shall be assessed in the amount of $100 for each calendar day the work remains incomplete beyond the time fixed above for completion.

Plans and specifications may be secured from the Department of Public Works, 20 West Hedding Street, San Jose, California 95110, upon the payment of $5.00 per set as a deposit. If these documents are returned in good condition within ten (10) days after the date set for the opening of the bids, the full amount of the deposit will be returned. Credit will be given for specifications returned with the bid submitted to the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

By order of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, on February 20, 1973.

ATTEST: Donald M. Rains
Clerk, Board of Supervisors.

Project: San Tomas Exp.
Parcel No.: 2834-12 EX B

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF COUNTY OF SANTA CLARA TO SELL REAL PROPERTY NO LONGER REQUIRED FOR HIGHWAY PURPOSES

WHEREAS, the County of Santa Clara has acquired for highway purposes certain real property no longer required for such purposes, such property being more fully described in Exhibit "A", attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that pursuant to the authority of Section 960.4 of the California Streets and Highways Code, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara do hereby declare their intention to offer for sale the above-described real property.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that such real property shall be sold subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The minimum amount which will be accepted for the sale of such property shall be the sum of Eleven Thousand Dollars ($11,000.00)

2. The County of Santa Clara has purchased a preliminary title report from Title Insurance and Trust Co., 110 West Taylor Street, San Jose, escrow number 321223. A copy of such preliminary title report is available for inspection at the title company. The successful bidder shall close the transaction through this escrow.

3. All sealed bids shall be accompanied by a deposit in the form of cash, cashier's check or certified check, payable to the order of the County of Santa Clara in the amount of One Thousand One Hundred Dollars ($1,100.00). All oral bids from persons not submitting written bids shall be accompanied by a deposit in the form of cash, cashier's check or certified check in the amount of ten per cent (10%) of the minimum price specified in this resolution. No bids shall be considered unless such deposit is enclosed or provided therewith.

4. Written bids shall be on forms provided by the County. Before accepting any written bid, the Board of Supervisors shall call for oral bids. Any oral bid must exceed by at least five per cent the highest written bid. In the absence of written bids, the minimum oral bid shall be not less than the amount specified in paragraph 1. Final acceptance of an oral bid shall not be made, however, unless such oral bid is reduced to writing and signed by the bidder on a form provided by the County.

No commission shall be paid unless there is contained in the sealed proposal the name of the licensed real estate broker to whom it shall be paid. No commission shall be paid in connection with a successful oral bid unless the oral bid, when reduced in writing, states the name of the licensed real estate broker to whom it shall be paid.

5. The County may accept the bid of the highest responsible bidder (written or oral), or may reject all bids, as well as waiving any and all defects or informalities in any and all such bids. In the event there is a tie as to the highest responsible bidder (written or oral), the successful bidder may be determined by lot, or by such other means as determined by the Board of Supervisors. Any sale may be cancelled by County at any time prior to the recordation of the deed, in which event all monies deposited shall be refunded without payment of interest. In determining the highest proposal, the Board shall not subtract therefrom any commission to be paid in accordance with paragraph 12 hereof.

6. Within sixty (60) days after date of acceptance of bid by the Board of Supervisors, the successful bidder shall:

(a) Pay the balance in full, or

(b) Increase his deposit to not less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the amount of the bid by deposit with the title company referred to in paragraph 2.

The balance of the purchase price (in a maximum sum of seventy-five per cent of the amount of the bid) shall be evidenced by a promissory note by the successful bidder naming the County of Santa Clara as payee, such evidence of indebtedness to be secured by a first deed of trust covering the entire parcel being sold. Such note shall be payable on or before eighteen (18) months after date of recordation of deed. The deed of trust shall contain a clause providing for acceleration upon the alienation of title.

Upon delivery into escrow by bidder of all documents and money provided for in (a) or (b) above, County shall deliver into escrow a deed in favor of the successful bidder.

7. The promissory note shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum.

Said interest shall be paid to County quarterly on the first day of January, April, July and October, commencing with whichever of the last-mentioned months that follows the recordation date of the deed. Each quarterly interest payment shall be computed and prorated on the basis of the unpaid balance prevailing at the beginning of the quarterly period.

A late charge in the amount of 2% of the quarterly interest payment will be assessed if interest payment is not made within 10 calendar days after due date.

The principal obligation under the Note and Deed of Trust may be prepaid in full or in part at any time without penalty. Partial payments shall be applied against the principal obligation.

8. Until the recordation of the deed to the successful bidder, the successful bidder acquires no right, title or interest or equity in or to such real property.

9. A failure of the successful bidder to comply with any of the provisions of this resolution shall cause the County to terminate the sales proceeding and retain the deposit referred to in paragraph 3.

10. The sale shall be without warranty, express or implied, and shall be subject to all liens, easements and encumbrances, whether of record or not, as of the date of recordation of the deed. The County of Santa Clara does not guarantee the condition of the property, nor does it assume any responsibility for its conformance to codes or regulations of the State of California, or the city or county in which the property is located. It is the successful bidder's responsibility to determine all applicable building, planning and zoning regulations relative to the property. The property will be sold on an "as is" basis.

11. Any and all expenses incurred in the transfer of title to such property to the successful bidder, including title insurance, escrow charges and documentary stamp tax, shall be paid by the successful bidder, with the exception that the County of Santa Clara will pay for the preliminary title report previously referred to.

The successful bidder shall deposit into escrow a policy of fire insurance covering any improvements located on the property in an amount satisfactory to and naming the County of Santa Clara as coinsured.

12. In the event a commission is to be paid in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 4 above, County shall pay a licensed real estate broker commission in the maximum of six per cent of the purchase price, such commission, however, to be paid only in the event that the Board of Supervisors accepts a bid, only out of monies received by the County of Santa Clara for the sale of property, and only after recordation of the deed. Such commission shall be paid as follows:

(a) If the highest acceptable sealed bid is submitted by a licensed real estate broker, a commission of three per cent of the purchase price. In the event of a tie between two or more licensed real estate brokers as to the highest acceptable sealed bid, the commission of three per cent of the purchase price shall be equally divided between the brokers. No commission shall be paid if the highest acceptable sealed bid is not submitted by a licensed real estate broker. In the event of a tie between a licensed real estate broker and a bidder who submits a bid and is not a licensed real estate broker, as to the highest acceptable sealed bid, the licensed real estate broker shall be entitled to a commission of three per cent of the purchase price.

(b) Three per cent of the purchase price to the licensed real estate broker submitting the successful bid.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that on April 11, 1973 at the hour of 10:00 o'clock a.m. at the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in Room 524 in the County Administration Building, 70 West Hedding Street, San Jose, California, 95110, is hereby fixed as the time and place at which sealed bids, in writing, for the purchase of such property will be received. The Board will open all such bids at a public meeting of the Board at the hour of 10:30 a.m., April 11, 1973, at the regular meeting place of the Board of Supervisors in the County Administration Building, 70 West Hedding Street, San Jose, California, and at which time and place oral bids will be received.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors shall publish this resolution pursuant to Section 6063 of the Government Code and shall post a copy of this resolution on the property and at two other locations customarily used by the County for the purpose of posting public notice.

PASSED AND ADOPTED BY THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, on Feb. 13, 1973, by the following vote:

AYES: Supervisors: Mehrkens, Sanchez, Calvo, Cortese, Mc Corquodale
NOES: Supervisors: None

Speaking OF taxes

by Pat Safford, vice president of the Greater Bay Area chapter of the Assn. of Enrolled Agents

Readers' comments and questions are welcomed. Those of general interest will be covered in "Speaking of Taxes." Address your letters to: Speaking of Taxes, P. O. Box 158, Campbell, Ca. 95008

Q – IF I DON'T EARN ENOUGH TO OWE ANY INCOME TAXES CAN I ARRANGE IT SO NO INCOME TAX IS TAKEN OUT OF MY PAY?

A–Yes. If you had no income tax liability for this past year and anticipate none for 1973 you may file a form W-4E with your employer.

For instance: If you're a student earning $750 at a part-time job, you would receive a refund of your entire income taxes withheld upon filing your tax return. If you'll be receiving the same amount of gross wages for 1973 you may file the W-4E form with your employer so no income taxes are withheld this year.

You will still be liable for FICA (social security) and SDI (state disability insurance) taxes but would have no FIT (federal income tax) withheld.

FOR SPANISH SPEAKING

For area residents who speak only Spanish, the IRS has a new program of tax assistance available at the Mexican - American Community Service Agency, 1660 McKee Road, San Jose.

According to a release issued by the San Francisco District IRS office, volunteer assisters have been trained by the IRS in the preparation of fairly simple tax returns. The program name is Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA).

Help will be offered at the center on Saturdays, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.; Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Monday and Friday, from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.

STATE MILITARY EXCLUSION

Last year the state tax regulations were changed to allow the $1,000 exclusion of "non-combat" military pay ONLY for those with more than 90 days of active duty or for those with an "indefinite" period of duty. This means that individuals with armed service pensions cannot claim this exclusion unless they also served on active duty during the tax year.

In addition, an enlisted man may deduct all service pay received for each month he served in a combat zone or in an area in direct support of such combat zone under conditions that qualified him for Hostile Fire Pay. If he or she is hospitalized as a result of military service, all pay received during the period of hospitalization is also deductible.

Commissioned officers can deduct up to $500 per month of military pay. To arrive at this deduction any part of a month is considered a full month.

Q–CAN I BE CONSIDERED A HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD FOR TAX PURPOSES WITHOUT CLAIMING A DEPENDENT?

A–Yes, under certain circumstances.

If, on December 31, 1972 you were single or legally separated and you also paid over one half of the cost of keeping up your home which was lived in all year by your unmarried child, grandchild, foster child or stepchild, you qualify.

Temporary absences by your child for vacation and/or school do not exclude you from this tax status. Under these provisions, your child does not have to be your dependent in order for you to claim head-of-household status.

This provision applies to both federal and state tax returns.

(Note: If you are legally divorced at the end of the year, you are considered single for that year. Legal separation DOES NOT mean that you've separated and have filed for dissolution of marriage.)

SEPARATED INDIVIDUALS

Last year the IRS announced a new filing status for certain individuals. Some married, but separated, individuals may now be able to file as either Single or Unmarried Head of Household under the following conditions:
1. You file a separate return,
2. You paid more than one-half the cost of keeping up your home for the year,
3. Your wife or husband did not live in your home AT ANY TIME during 1972 and,
4. For over six months of 1972 your home was the main home of your child or stepchild whom you can claim as a dependent.

NOTE: The state DOES NOT have this filing provision.

For years the filing provisions have been grossly unfair in circumstances where a wife or husband was abandoned with dependent children to support. Under the old laws he or she had to file as Married Filing Separately (the highest tax bracket). Also, under present law, when your status is Married Filing Separately you have to either both itemize or both take the standard deduction.

In some cases the whereabouts of the missing spouse was unknown, making this an impossible regulation to follow.

The state did not change their provisions last year to fit this new federal status. Perhaps....this year?

West Valley Sports

by Dick Sparrer

DEFEATS DROP VIKINGS-- West Valley College lost two close decisions last week which dropped the Vikings into second place in the Camino Norte Conference. On Wednesday, the Vikings bowed to Marin, the league leader, 60-58 and on Saturday they were upset by Solano 76-75 when a last-second basket was scored.

Marin, rated number four in the state, and West Valley (before Wednesday), number five, squeezed by in the final seconds. West Valley had been down by seven points with only four minutes left.

In the Solano battle, a desperation shot in the last few seconds was the margin of victory.

Bruce Batinich (Blackford) shown scoring, also did a top-notch job in snagging rebounds in the two contests.

WRESTLING

Only one Viking wrestler will represent West Valley College this weekend at the annual state mat tournament at Fullerton even after seven had won places in the Camino Norte Conference season ender.

Seven Vikes placed and two in that seven were weight champions at the conference finals over a week ago. But it wasn't one of those champs who qualified for state.

Mike Walker (Campbell) snatched a second place at 142 pounds after ending the day with three wins and a loss, his only loss in the finals.

Dave Mendez (Buchser) got a fifth at 134 and Doug Allen (heavyweight) did the same in his class but neither can continue since only the top four go to state.

At the conference meet a week earlier, Allen won the league title in the heavyweight division and Mitch Vierra (Westmont) was the champ at 142 for WVC. Mendez and Walker both ended with seconds.

Gary Russell (Leigh) and Angel Soliz (Wilcox) both were third placers and Dale Robinson (Saratoga) nabbed a fourth.

West Valley finished a solid third in the team standings. Skyline was the league's second place team and West Valley third after the duals.

Local poets invited to enter Poetry Competition

Local poets are offered the opportunity to win recognition and prize money for their writing in the First Annual Montalvo Poetry Competition.

Three prizes are offered, the first, the Montalvo Phelan Award of $100, was donated under the auspices of the San Francisco Foundation. The late Senator James D. Phelan was, himself, a poet and the award is given to further the art form he loved.

Prizes will be awarded at a special program in memory of Senator Phelan honoring the winners at Montalvo Carriage House, Sunday, April 29, 1973. The public is invited. Competition closes March 16. Entries received after that date will not be considered.

Judging will be done by three nationally known poets, George Hitchcock, University of California, Santa Cruz, Shirley Kaufman, San Francisco poet; and, Stan Rice, California State University, San Francisco.

Hitchcock, besides his poetry teaching, is a publisher of Kayak magazine and Kayak books. Kaufman is a past winner of the University of Pittsburg Literary Award and Rice heads the Poetry Center at San Francisco.

Typewritten poems may be in any form not to exceed 100 lines. Judging will be done on a sealed basis; the identity of entrants will not be known to the judges.

Complete information regarding the competition may be received by calling Villa Montalvo, Saratoga, 867-3421.

LEADERSHIP AWARD---Mervyn L. Nelson (right), of Nelson Brothers Trucking Co., Campbell, has been awarded the coveted leadership award by the California Trucking Association for his outstanding service as chairman of the Truckload Carriers Conference in 1972. The award was presented by Thomas R. Dwyer (left), chairman of CTA's board of directors at the association's recent 24th annual convention in Coronado, Calif.

School names honor students

Fourteen Campbell area residents are among honor role students announced recently by the San Jose Christian Schools, 2350 Leigh Ave., San Jose.

Earning an A- average or better are: Gaye Patapoff, senior; Karen Jamieson, junior; Fred Van Gorkom, sophomore and John Vanderwerf, eighth grade.

Placed on the honorable mention roll for a B average or better are: Virginia Jamieson and Tom Larson, seniors; Merri Jill Patapoff, Ray Plopper, Tom Van Gorkom, David Vander Veen and Roger Vander Veen, ninth grade students; and Louanne Gritter, Leslie Larson and Anne Plopper, seventh grade.

HEAVY MOVING

Last Wednesday South Bay Gunite Co. reported missing two pieces of equipment to Campbell police.

When last seen the stolen items were on a pallet in the storage yard.

Missing are two 300-pound radiators used for pneumatic compressors. Value was set at $1,500.

Loving care given by "foster grandparents"

by Pat Safford

The youngster, a boy of about 10, had been conducting a sit-down strike in the large gravel driveway of the Ming Quong Children's Center. Finally persuaded by his counselor to go to lunch he set off at a snail's pace toward the dining room. A car pulled into the drive and the boy's face lit up. "Hi Grandma!," he shouted and broke into a run as he raced to lunch.

"Grandma" is a Foster Grandparent. A member of a new program underway in Santa Clara County.

PERSONAL ATTENTION

Foster Grandparents devote four hours of love, personal attention and care daily to children at the center, those in the pediatric ward of Valley Medical Center and at the girl's ranch facility.

The program, administered locally by Catholic Social Service of Santa Clara County, is part of national ACTION (citizens service corps).

REQUIREMENTS

Men and women over 60 years of age, in good health, and with incomes under $2,100 for a single person and $2,725 for couples are eligible for the program. "Foster Grandparents," receive a stipend of $1.60 hourly for an average 20 hour week plus a meal on the days they serve.

Funded by a $129,522 grant from ACTION in June of 1972, the county program offers volunteers 20 hours of orientation-training.

STORYTIME

The Foster Grandparent is responsible for supplying individual attention to two children. The grandparent devotes two hours of each day with each child. During the five-day week, tasks may vary from feeding and dressing small children to playing games and reading stories.

BACKGROUND

Nationally some 5,500 persons are now serving as foster grandparents in 41 states and Puerto Rico. The program, begun in 1965 under the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, became part of ACTION in July of 1971.

Several Campbell individuals are now involved in the grandparent program. Locally, transportation has been the major problem in getting volunteers to their "grandchildren." Volunteer drivers are now being used to help solve this problem.

Those interested in learning more about the program should contact Katherine Gibson, project director, at 2175 The Alameda, San Jose or phone 243-0994.

Human aging control lecture presented here

Dr. Alex Comfort will speak on the study and control of human aging at West Valley College, Wednesday, March 14 at 8 p.m.

His appearance is the fifth event in the college's spring lecture series.

Dr. Comfort is currently director of research in gerontology at University College, London, and his talk will discuss not only the study but also the implication of such control on human aging.

His book "Sex and Society," which first appeared in 1950, has been both praised and attacked as a statement of the "new morality." He is also author of the number two non-fiction best seller, "The Joy of Sex."

Dr. Comfort was the pioneer of the science of gerontology in England, being the first person to receive his doctorate of science in that subject.

Tickets for his appearance may be obtained through Community Services, 44 E. Latimer Ave , Campbell, room L-26, telephone 379-1733, ext. 58.

St. Andrews sets concert

Anita Graves, organist, and Jack Vogel, violinist, assisted by baritone Gerald Gossett, will present the next event of the Saint Andrew's Concert Series on Friday, March 9, at 8:15 p.m., at Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church in Saratoga.

Mrs. Graves has been organist at Saint Andrew's for the past four years. A former assistant professor of music at San Jose State University and past dean of the American Guild of Organists, she has been active in this area as organist, pianist, choral director and teacher.

Vogel received his musical education in Southern California. His first love is the violin, which he began at a very early age. His repertoire includes most of the major violin concerti. He has also composed and conducted choral and instrumental music.

Gossett has been choral director at Saint Andrew's for 10 of the past 15 years. He has soloed and directed recital and oratorio performances in the Santa Clara Valley area.

Tickets for the concert will be available at the door (Saratoga Ave. at Fruitvale). Ticket information may be obtained at the church office, 867-3493.

Junior music fest announced

Final deadline for applications requesting auditions for the Junior Music Festival is March 17, according to Alfred Seidel, founder and music director.

Two concerts are presented by the group each year which features young performers selected by an audition committee composed of musicians from outside Santa Clara County.

April 15 has been set as the audition date with the concert scheduled for May.

Interested soloists and ensembles should obtain application blanks available at music stores and libraries throughout the county.

The Festival, open to all county residents up to and including 19 years of age (22 for singers), offers performances of authentic compositions of pre-Classical or Classical Period Music (composed before 1827).

The concerts are performed without admission charge.

GRADUATES — Marine Pvt. Daniel Vasquez, brother of Fred Salaza of 23 S. Erie Way, graduated from basic training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego.

Hospital gives diet guidance

Dietary counseling for outpatients with heart and related physical problems is now available at Community Hospital, Los Gatos-Saratoga.

In cooperation with the Santa Clara County Heart Association, Community Hospital conducts a dietary guidance clinic for referred patients every other week.

To participate, an outpatient must be referred by a physician; he must have the doctor's signed prescription which includes data on the patient's height, weight, age, medical diagnosis, and the type of dietary guidance needed. The patient must also make an appointment to attend the clinic by calling Mrs. Stookey at 354-8069.

At the bi-weekly clinic, two dietitians provide information on menu planning, recipes, and food purchasing. The session is a one-time affair for each referred outpatient.

Capri plans spaghetti feed

Capri Home and School Club is holding a spaghetti dinner on Thursday, March 15, in the school cafeteria, from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

In addition to spaghetti the menu includes French bread, salad and ice cream, as well as coffee or milk.

Price of the dinner is $1.50 for adults, $1 for students, grades 4-8, and 75 cents for children third grade and under.

Free baby clinics held

"Well Baby Clinics" are a free County Health Department service available to apparently well children, under five years of age, living in the County and whose parents cannot otherwise afford such a service.

Immunizations and pediatric counseling are among the many services available at the "Well Baby Clinics".

For further information, please contact your local County Health Department office or call 297-1636, extension 461.

Solo auditions announced

Auditions for soloists for the second annual San Jose Youth Symphony Concert in May, will be held Saturday, March 3, in Room F-7, San Jose City College, it was announced by Eugene Stoia, orchestra director.

Young musicians who wish to solo with the orchestra should request applications and contest rules from Mrs. Mary Johnson, vice-president of the San Jose Symphony Association by writing to 1655 Emory St., San Jose, or by contacting the San Jose Symphony Office, St. Claire Hotel, San Jose.

Mr. Stoia said pianists and symphonic instrumentalists under 19 years of age should be prepared by memory to perform a first movement or a second and third movement of a standard concerto as prescribed by the rules.

Applicants will be adjudicated by a panel of judges whose decisions will be final, he said.

For information call Mrs. Johnson at 294-3110 or the San Jose Symphony Office, 287-7383.

Two brothers honored in scouting program

Two Campbell brothers share the honor of receiving the highest rank offered through the Boy Scout program this week.

Dale Larson, 14, will receive Eagle Scout rank at the court of honor ceremonies on Friday, March 2, at San Tomas School.

His brother Dana, 10, received the Arrow of Light award, the highest offered in the Cub Scout program, last week.

Dale's uncle, Dr. W. W. Sherwood, a scoutmaster in the San Francisco Bay Area Council, will make the presentation at the 7:45 p.m. ceremonies. Troop 330's newest Eagle Scout is a freshman at Westmont High School and a member of the Westmont frosh-soph swim team. He is also a member of the Acelyte team and Youth Living Uniquely groups at Bethel Lutheran Church in Cupertino.

In addition to the 11 merit badge requirements for eagle rank, Dale has also earned badges in 19 other areas including, automotive safety, public speaking, firemanship, public health and hiking.

Dana, a fifth grader at San Tomas School, has been active in the scouting program for three years. In addition to the bear and wolf badges and gold and silver arrow awards earned in the Cub Scout program, he has earned nine Weblo activity badges including, outdoorsman, scientist, traveler and naturalist.

The boys are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Larson of Campbell. Larson is scoutmaster for troop 330.

MAEP seeks new students

State statistics show that there are 36,000 adults in San Jose who don't have education equivalent to eighth grade Leland Clark, director of the Metropolitan Adult Education Program, estimates that of the 300,000 adults living in the combined school districts of MAEP 120,000 adults still have need of their high school education.

MAEP is actively seeking these people for its Elementary and High School Diploma Programs. Classes are available in many locations mornings, afternoons and evenings.

Adults who need to learn basic skills of reading, writing and arithmetic can find help in the Elementary Education Program, which is free. They can call or see Counselor Ruth Lindstrom at the MAEP Administrative Center, 1671 Park Ave., San Jose, 95126.

The High School Diploma Program has counseling centers in Campbell at 1224 Del Mar Ave., San Jose.

ADULT STUDENTS

Last year 1,821 adults registered in ESL and Basic Education classes during the Fall Semester 1972 ending October 27. Of these, there were five American Indians, 34 Blacks, 172 Orientals, 10 Puerto Ricans, 878 Mexican-Americans, 382 Spanish-surnamed and 340 Other groups. There were 47 who were 65 years and older with a majority (1,106) of these students in the 16 to 34 year age range.

Downtown business gets enthusiastic owner

Standing on the corner of Campbell Avenue and First Street is the newest addition to the renovation of "downtown" Campbell. On that corner is the Kirby Company of Campbell - Briner Hall, formerly known as the Campbell Country Woman's Club.

Purchased in the middle of last year by Mr. and Mrs. James Briner, the building serves two purposes. The old "museum" has been converted into the new offices of the Kirby Company of Campbell, distributors of Kirby Vacuum Cleaners. The other portion of the building has been renamed "Briner Hall" and serves as a rental hall for banquets, parties, etc.

The club was first offered to the City of Campbell for use as a city facility but cost estimates for renovating the building were too much. Briner purchased the building and estimated the repairs at around $10,000.

The building was repainted inside and out, sections of the roof were re-done, the floors were completely sanded and polished, new partitions were added as well as carpeting, drapes and air-conditioning. Future plans include the addition of a new kitchen and outside barbecue pits.

Briner has said that he hopes that Briner Hall can serve as a stimulus for downtown businessmen to want to renovate downtown Campbell. He believes that the downtown shopping area has great potential.

Already under way right behind Briner Hall, is the construction of the "Factory", a project which will refurbish the old Sunsweet Plant and bring added commerce to downtown.

Briner feels, however, that before the full potential of the area can be realized, all of the landowners and merchants must work together to beautify it.

"I feel that I have made a significant contribution to the improvement of downtown, and I hope that others will follow," he said. He believes that the loop street system will help, but that the individuals must care enough to improve our city.

Growth and expansion noted by firm

K & K Manufacturing Inc. was established 16 years ago by C.E. Kronzer and moved to Campbell in 1960.

The business was begun with two machines in a small shop located at 1203 Dell Avenue, under the direction of Kronzer as president and his son Phil Kronzer as vice-president. The company was named K & K Manufacturing Inc.

K & K has grown over the past 16 years to establish two subsidiaries--KLH Castings Inc. and K & H Finishings Inc.

K & H Finishings have operated out of 1060 Florence Way with KLH Castings at 81 Lost Lake Lane, both in Campbell.

When K & K moved to their new facility at 1500 Dell Ave., just over one year ago, they became one of the leaders in the "industrial park boom" in Campbell.

"I am very excited about the growth of the industrial park in Campbell, and look forward to the expansion of new industry here," said Phil Kronzer, vice-president.

"I would classify our business as a manufacturing job shop, one of the foremost in Northern California." Kronzer went on to say that "we offer a complete manufacturing service from pattern to aluminum casting, machining and finished processing. We serve clients such as Memorex, IBM and Hewlett Packard." Over the years our operation has grown to employ over 125 personnel.

Since their founding in 1955, the companies have produced products used in complex electronic tube assemblies, related electronic linkage components for digital computers and thousands of other small-close tolerance products with related jigs and fixtures for the U. S. Space Program and other governmental agencies.

K & K has invested more than $1.5 million in machinery and other equipment over the past 15 years. This precision equipment assures a high degree of product acceptance. Production operations by highly skilled machinists include milling, boring, duplicating, grinding, honing, mechanical and electrical assembly, testing, inspection, parts packaging and shipment.

Over the years, K & K has grown and become an intricate part of the industrial development of the City of Campbell. "We are pleased to be a part of this community and hope that other industries will follow the lead set by K & K and move their business to one of the fastest growing industrial areas of Santa Clara County," said Phil Kronzer.

CENTRAL AREA PRESIDENT---Charles N. Munger, Jr., div. commercial manager, Pacific Telephone, was recently installed as head of the United Fund's Central Area Chapter which includes the Campbell area. He was commerce and industry chairman for the Chapter in 1971, and last year led the entire Chapter to a $2,530,784, 97 per cent of goal performance as general campaign chairman.

First order of business for Munger and the new Chapter Board of Directors will be to review and approve the distribution of $1,257,308 to UF agencies serving the chapter area as recommended by the Agency Relations and Allocations Committee. This will take place later this month.

BACK IN PORT

Navy Seaman Recruit Mark E. Stevens, son of Mrs. Marie Stevens, of Campbell, has returned to his homeport at Norfolk, Va., aboard the amphibious assault ship USS Iwo Jima, after a six-month deployment in the Mediterranean.

During his deployment he visited ports in Greece, France, Italy and Spain.

He is a former student of Campbell High School.

Campbell man follows own path

INSPECTING PROGRESS— The sound of hammers and saws is part of the daily routine at Vinod Kamboj's new bridal studio. Business goes on...almost as usual...during the extensive remodeling.

The dream of Vinod K. Kamboj's father was that he someday follow in his footsteps and become a medical doctor. Instead, today, far from his native home in New Delhi, India, Vinod is busy getting his new firm, "Bridal Service," under way.

A former engineering student, Vinod has always had photography as an avocation but, until recent years, could only get in camera time on his days off.

The Campbell man's background is interesting and varied. He arrived in the United States on July 31, 1962, having enrolled at Yuba College. "On August 1, I started picking peaches," he related. "I was told you just get a ladder and pick a few peaches and make a lot of money," he laughed, "but when that first day was through, I knew better."

BUSY STUDENT

An industrious student, Vinod's later part-time and full-time jobs included; irrigating a rice farm, working at a service station, restaurant busboy, and driving a courtesy car and serving as a bellman for a swank hotel.

While a student at San Jose State College, he met a young American girl in the college cafeteria. They later married and are the parents of a four-year-old daughter, Kiran. (In the Hindu language that means the first rays of the sun, he explained.)

DIFFICULT HOBBY

While photography was always his first love, Vinod didn't get much opportunity to work in the field in India. In that country, he related, commercial film processing firms are not available so camera buffs for the most part must have all the equipment needed, including darkroom supplies and enlarging equipment.

His first camera, a Yashika, was a wedding present sent by a Canadian friend. In short order he acquired still another camera, a twin-lense reflex, and finally the elaborate equipment he uses today.

FIRST ASSIGNMENT

Before moving to Campbell he turned professional photographer. One of his first assignments was with E. W. Hahn Company where he took photographs for area businesses. Other assignments included the progressive shots of construction of the Eastridge Shopping Center. The 17-month project involved taking photographs every two weeks as the construction progressed. He also used a friend's Cessna 150 for aerial pictures of the site.

LIVELY SUBJECTS — Local commercial photographer Vinod Kamboj recently opened a bridal studio on East Campbell Avenue.

CREATIVE CHAOS

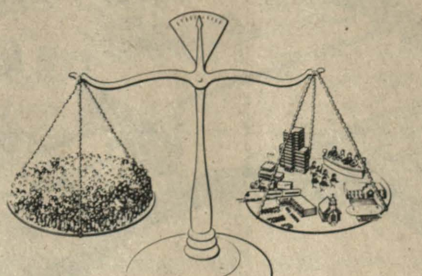
The telephones rang incessantly at the building at 880 E. Campbell Ave., last Friday morning. A scene of creative chaos, laborers were busy working on the roof, job applicants were dropping in to be interviewed for the seamstress job opening, businessmen were in and out of the office getting their pictures taken and young women (and their mothers) were calling to get information about wedding photos, reception decorations and catering services.

Piles of discarded shingles were evident in the front yard of the single story frame building. "We plan to have the remodeling completed by April 1," the photographer said. Heavy rains have delayed the exterior work but with the skies clearing workmen beat a steady rhythm on the rapidly changing structure.

Only a few individuals are able to earn their living doing what they would choose to do in leisure hours...Vinod is one of these.



IT IS ONLY THROUGH CITIZEN INVOLVEMENT AND BY PLANNING AND WORKING TOGETHER THAT WE CAN MAINTAIN THE PROPER BALANCE THAT HAS MADE OUR COMMUNITY ONE OF THE MOST PROGRESSIVE IN THE AREA...

IT IS A PRIVILEGE TO SERVE THE PEOPLE OF THIS CITY.

Travelers visit Yosemite

Y-Travelers, YWCA-sponsored travel group, are studying their maps and marking their calendars for some tantalizing trips, one as close as Santa Cruz and another giving them six days travel through the Pacific Northwest. Plans for visits to Sacramento, Yosemite, and Monterey-Pacific Grove are being made also.

Saturday, March 10, traveler will leave the YWCA in time to get to Sacramento for the Camellia Parade, then shop and lunch at the downtown shopping plaza before viewing the giant camellia trees of Sacramento.

Y-Travelers is open to men and women of all ages, and all travel is by chartered bus. For more information, please call Doris Harrod at the YWCA, 210 South Second Street, phone 292-5727.

Invitation to Campbell chefs

The amateur division of the annual Exhibition of Culinary Arts has been expanded and interested amateur chefs are invited to submit applications for entry to the event, which will be held April 29 at the Mediterranean Center of San Jose Hyatt House.

Sponsored by the Santa Clara County Heart Association, the Santa Clara chapter of the American Culinary Federation and the Hotel and Restaurant Service Employees Local 180, this will be the second year for the culinary competition.

Mrs. J. Frederic Snyder, chairman, said that amateurs may enter entrees in the gourmet division or as decorative pieces. Special judges will be named to pick winners in the amateur division.

Full details on food categories may be obtained from Carrie Hartley at the Santa Clara County Heart Association, 288-7617.

Nuclear Services expands in local industrial park

One of the many growing industries in Campbell, Nuclear Services Corporation, a consulting engineering organization is located in the Campbell Industrial Park at 477 Division St.

NSC provides service to electric utilities, architect engineer/constructors, nuclear steam suppliers and equipment fabricators.

The company is headed by Sherman Naymark, president; Thomas J. Pashos, vice-president, engineering, and Jack Lingafelter, vice-president, technical services.

Together their experience totals 65 years in the nuclear field.

In addition, a majority of the staff members have extensive backgrounds in the nuclear power plant field. This background includes experience with all three commercial power plant reactor types - the boiling water reactor, the pressurized water reactor and the high temperature gas cooled reactor.

Nuclear Services has seen a tremendous growth rate, now employing more than 100 personnel. Recently they moved into a new building, adjacent to their current quarters on Division.

Nuclear Services is vitally concerned about the future development of the industrial park and believes that new industry and companies will soon be moving to this fast growing area. They are also interested in community problems and have been helping solve some of the financial problems of the West Valley Progressive Seniors.

Nuclear Services Corporation offers a wide variety of services in the nuclear power industry. They provide facilities for nuclear power plant engineering, quality assurance services, nuclear fuel services, preservice and inservice inspection, plant startup and operations planning, and nondestructive examination.

Among the many clients served are Boston Edison Company, Iowa Electric Light and Power Company, Sacramento Municipal Utility District, General Electric, Westinghouse Electric, and the Stanford Linear Accellerator Laboratory.

Dedicated to excellence of service, offering broad experience, specialized skills, rapid response and teamwork and knowledge of total job integration, Nuclear Services Corporation has grown to be the second largest company of its type in the United States.

Four elected as trustees

This year will be the third time around for officers of the Board of Trustees of The Good Samaritan Hospital of Santa Clara Valley, as the result of elections at the annual meeting last week (Jan. 31).

Roy E. Demmon, real estate developer elected to his first term in 1971, will continue as chairman of the board. Other officers, also first elected in 1971, are H. Robert Hursted, vice chairman; James R. Cook Jr., secretary; and Henry T. Yamate, treasurer.

New on the board, as the result of annual elections is Emily Dorr, former president of The Auxiliary of The Good Samaritan Hospital.

Honorary post for Noel Brown

Noel J. Brown, former Campbell manufacturer, was one of the first two persons to be elected honorary members of the Board of Trustees of The Good Samaritan Hospital of Santa Clara Valley.

He and Henry A. Oldenkamp, a former president of the board, were awarded the honorary memberships, with plaques, at the annual meeting of the board recently. Mr. Brown now lives in Hawaii.

Also presented at the same board meeting was a certificate of appreciation, awarded Gael T. Douglass, who retired from service after three terms of three years each. He now heads the San Jose City College board.

THE CALM BEFORE THE-- This Sunday sailboat racing gets under way at Vasona Reservoir in Los Gatos as San Jose Sailing Club boats cast off. This picture, taken by the boat launching area last week, is probably the last boatless view of the lake for months to come.

Sailing club to hoist mains'ls

When the season gets underway for the San Jose Sailing Club on Sunday, March 4, at Vasona Reservoir, Campbell will be well represented.

Six local families are among members of this active and competitive group, now in its fifteenth year.

NOT SO EXPENSIVE

Contrary to popular belief, one club member reports, sailing is not just for the wealthy. "People consider yachting a very expensive sport," said Grace O'Brian, club member, "but small boating can be in the modest price range."

The San Jose club last year included 210 families and a total of nine fleets. The boat fleets range from the small eight-foot class up to 21 foot racing sloops.

While sailing, particularly competitive sailing, is the main interest of the group, many other activities are held during the eight month season. Picnics, cruises, dinners and other social gatherings are already set for this year and emphasis is on full family participation.

CAMPBELL SAILORS

Campbell members and their boat classifications include; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Firebaugh, 1388 Latimer Ave., (F.J.), Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hale, 262 Branberry Dr., (470-an olympic class boat); Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Harmer, 1392 El Moro Dr., (Lido), Mr. and Mrs. Don Hebard, 205 Calado Ave., (El Toro), Walt McCall, 2160 Winchester Blvd., (El Toro), and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McClintic, 1495 McBain Ave., (F.J. and El Toro).

Visitors are welcome at the monthly meetings of the group, held on the third Tuesday of each month at 8 p.m. at the Rosegarden Branch of the San Jose Public Library.

NATIONAL HONORS

The local club can claim at least four national champions. In 1972 Ralph Joy, of Los Gatos, took top honors in the El Toro class. In 1970 Fred Paxton of San Jose placed first in the F.J. class, Bill Robinson of Saratoga held the top spot in the Banshee class and Pat Walsh of Los Gatos was national champion in the Cal. 2-24 class.

While Vasona is considered "home waters" for the sailing club their meets range throughout the Bay Area. Some of the events entered by members include; South Bay Yacht Racing Assn. events, Small Boat Racing Assn. events, club invitationals, cruises, national events and inter-fleet fun races.

COST RANGE

One example of the cost of sailing is in the El Toro class, Mrs. O'Brian said. Prices range from $300 (less if a used boat is purchased) to $2,000. Club membership fees are minimal ($12 annually) and entry fees in most sailing events are under $5.

The excitement and joy in the sport of sailboat racing has always been a puzzle to those of us who keep both feet planted firmly on the shore. Poet William Cullen Bryant must have possessed some understanding, however, when he wrote, "To him who, in the love of Nature, holds Communion with her visible forms, she speaks a various language, for his gayer hours."

CAMPBELL FAMILY --- The Dick Hale family rig up their International 470 sailboat at Vasona Reservoir. Hale, 262 Branbury Dr., holds the Northern California sailing championship for the Olympic-class boat.

DROP THAT LINE--A heavy gust of wind catches the jib while the Hale family prepares to get in a little practice sailing at Vasona Reservoir. The Campbell business executive placed third in last year's Pacific Coast Championships and fourth in the North American championship races.

THERE SHE GOES --- Dick Hale hoists the jib while his wife, Andrea and children, David, 10, and Laura, 5 (with Mom) look on. They are one of several Campbell families who are members of the San Jose Sailing Club.

A COMMUNITY IN BALANCE

Buddy Program announces board of directors

The Buddy Program of Santa Clara County recently named its first Board of Directors. Now established as a recognized community service agency, the Buddy Program, sponsored by the Voluntary Action Center, a United Fund Agency, has been in operation seven years.

The concept of the Buddy Program is "One Man–One Boy". It provides adult male companionship to boys who do not have a father in the home. Currently there are approximately 100 boys who have been matched with men of similar interests. However, there is a great need for more adult Buddies to fill the void in the lives of many boys who are currently waiting, according to William Shelton, president.

Officers of the Board in addition to Shelton are: Robert Erickson, executive vice-president, and Robert Bell, vice-president.

Board members elected were Emmett Gatewood, James Gervais, Russell Loutham, William Carney, Sumio Fujimura, William Philbrook, Pete Taggart and Jack Woods.

Anyone wishing further information on the Buddy Program may call Joyce Sasse, program coordinator. The Program is located at 2175 The Alameda in San Jose.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS--- When Campbell High students Walters and Teresa Butler attended a recent steering committee meeting for the March 11 Walk-A-Thon against birth defects, they were happy to pose with Marty Mim Mack, 11, the grand marshal for the fund-raising event. The Campbell High students are holding the Walk-A-Thon sponsor sheet display like those now at 7-11 Stores, McDonald's Hamburgers, KLIV, and The National Foundation-March of Dimes, 1171 Lincoln Ave., San Jose.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

by Ellie Rumbaugh

Mrs. Michaud's Blue Bird group from Capri School took a trip to Shakey's Pizza Parlor on Camden Avenue. After a tour by the owners John Amling and O. J. Hattaway the girls ate pizza and received bazzokas. A fun time was had by all.

At their next meeting they had a Valentine's Party at the home of one of the members. Julie Kennison brought a very special Valentine cake that was quickly consumed. Although it was a rainy day, the girls' spirits were not dampened

What Breuners isn't ... and what it is

We don't specialize in row after row of sameness. We offer the unusual as well as the traditional. And we don't offer a confusing collection of oddities for the sake of "variety." We do offer an eye-opening selection of the best there is. Even when the best costs us a little more. What we're not is what's made us the preferred home furnishings store in Northern California — for more than 115 years. And the most complete one; no other store can make that statement. Our customers keep coming back because they have enjoyed our complete services and personalized attention by salespeople who know how to best give you assistance; that's because they're trained professionals—and professionals with a smile what's more. We believe in courtesy and so, we believe, do you. Breuners is the place where shoppers can depend on quality furnishings along with follow-through services at no additional charge. Extra services that include: • complete pre-delivery attention to your purchase • delivery at no additional charge within our regular delivery zones • expert decorator assistance that costs you no more when your purchase through a member of the decorator staff • complete satisfaction with every purchase • shop-at-home convenience for carpeting and draperies (we come to you with samples, make estimates) Buy-by-phone • Complete Bridal Registry. These services and more are included in the fair price you pay • For you prospective new customers in this growing area, we thought you'd be interested to know what Breuners isn't. And what it is!

Premiere concert for "Fantasma"

With rave reviews still echoing from their February performance in the Campbell Pops Concert, a newly-formed musical group will present their premiere concert for the community on Thursday, March 1, in the Campbell High School Auditorium at 8 p.m.

"Fantasma," a group with youthful exuberance and surprisingly professional polish, is composed of 25 musicians, singers and dancers who were selected through auditions based on their performing talents.

Directed by Bill Perkins, Campbell High School teacher, the group will perform rock, jazz, pop and folk music for the Thursday evening performance.

ON THEIR WAY

According to Perkins, "Fantasma" has already been invited to perform at Pepperdine College in Malibu this spring and an invitation to Disneyland is being considered.

A nine-piece band, led by drummer Bill Branson, with Dave Grecco on lead trumpet, will be featured in the jazz-rock arrangements. Most of the singers will be featured in solo numbers. Lori Bryant will be heard with "Let Me Be the One," and Tom Babbard, student leader of the group, can be heard in, "Happy Together," and "One Fine Morning."

Joan Evans, Sherre Young and Lynn Eldredge perform a special number from the Broadway show "Company" while Rich Smith will be featured in "Spinning Wheel." Choreography is by Marie Stinnett with the special musical arrangements by Earl Smith.

Tickets for the performance can be purchased for $1 at the door or from any member of the group.

CURTAIN CALL

Members include: musicians, Janet Bianchi, Bill Branson, Lou Chiaramonte, Dave Grecco, Bruce Horti, Jane Meredith and Steve Schroeder.

Singers and dancers include: Lori Bryant, Mike Burton, Lynn Eldredge, Dawn Engdahl, Joan Evans, Pete Fair, Tom Gabbard, Mary Kay Gilliland, Irene Johnson, Mike Mann, Sally Merriell, Mark Nichols, Dave Parker, Cynthia Perry, Rich Smith, Jodi Tacchini and Sherre Young.

Technical staff includes: Jan Menkemeller, Pat Powers, Brian Santos and Tim Whyte.

CURTAIN TIME--Rock, jazz, pop and folk music will be featured at the 8 p.m. premiere performance of "Fantasma," a newly-formed musical group at Campbell High School. Bill Perkins directs the group.

PREMIERE PERFORMANCE---"Fantasma," a new young sound on the scene makes their community premiere performance on Thursday, March 1, at Campbell High School auditorium.

Little League schedule set

Campbell Little League farm division co-ordinators Phil Rudgers and Jack Murdick have announced an 18-game schedule for the ten teams this year.

The farm division, consisting mainly of eight and nine-year-old boys, will be playing on the new field just recently constructed.

Managers for the league include: George Licina, Rick Shaffer, Bill Wright, Harry Emmett, Bill Bernard and Rick Hines. League spokesmen announced there are still manager and coach openings for interested Campbell fathers.

Farm division sponsors are: John M. Cole, Cefalu Mobil, Campbell Fire Department, Bermard Ceramic Tile, Shepardson Realty, Campbell Police Department, Straw Hat Pizza, Ohmann and Beutel Chevron and Residential Heating Service.

CHURCH NIGHT

All Church Fellowship Night will be held at the First United Methodist Church of Campbell, 1675 Winchester Blvd., Friday, March 2.

The evening will begin with a chili supper given by the Senior United Methodist Youth Fellowship, at 5 p.m. The dinner is their annual fund raiser.

Activities are planned for all age groups and include a string puppet show, rap session, handicrafts for boys and girls and square dancing.

Girl Scouts

NEIGHBORHOOD 15

Troop 169

During the past month Junior troop 169 has been busy in the community. They had a tour through the Campbell Police Department, which gave them credit toward the earning of their Sign of the Star. As a group they went to see "Micato."

For their service project they have been making tray and bed favors for the Westmoreland Convalescent Hospital. Leaders of the troop are Mrs. Darrell Slafter and Mrs. A. G. Guenther.

Troop 1020

Brownies from this troop have just finished a unit of study on the customs of Brownie troops from all over the world. The climax of this study was the visit of several foreign exchange students now attending San Jose State College, to their last scout meeting. Program was planned and directed by leader, Mrs. Smith Kline.

Troop 567

Cadette troop 567 hosted local celebrity Kris Napier to hear the highlights of her trip to New Jersey last summer. Kris, a former member of this troop, was a Santa Clara County Girl Scout selectee for a special national event dealing with oceanography.

The girls of the troop are working on new National Challenge requirements with special co-ordinators Mrs. Lillian Allan, Mrs. Carol Lemmerman and Mrs. Sharon Todd. After choosing their interest group within the challenge topic, they will study in small, closely knit groups until the many requirements are met and they can pass the final "challenge."

Service projects undertaken by this group included making lunch for children of Friends Outside (families of prisoners) and a special Valentine event for residents of the Odd Fellows Home. Leaders of this active Cadette troop are Mrs. James St. Germaine, Mrs. Robert Jollay, Mrs. Nino Candelaria and Mrs. Kay McFall.

Troop 609

These Brownies have been making storage cans to keep their valuable and fun things in at home. They recently went roller skating for the afternoon and were accompanied by leaders Mrs. James McKenna and Mrs. Kenneth Berg.

Troop 609 are from Baker School.

COOKIE SELLING---Brownie Girl Scouts Elissa Palmer and Cindy-Jane Cleveland from troop 826, are busy demonstrating how they will take cookie orders next week, for George Vierhus, publisher of The Campbell Press. Girl Scouts from all over Santa Clara County will begin taking orders for Girl Scout cookies on March 2.
